

OFFICE PANELS – A GUIDE TO CREATING SPACE

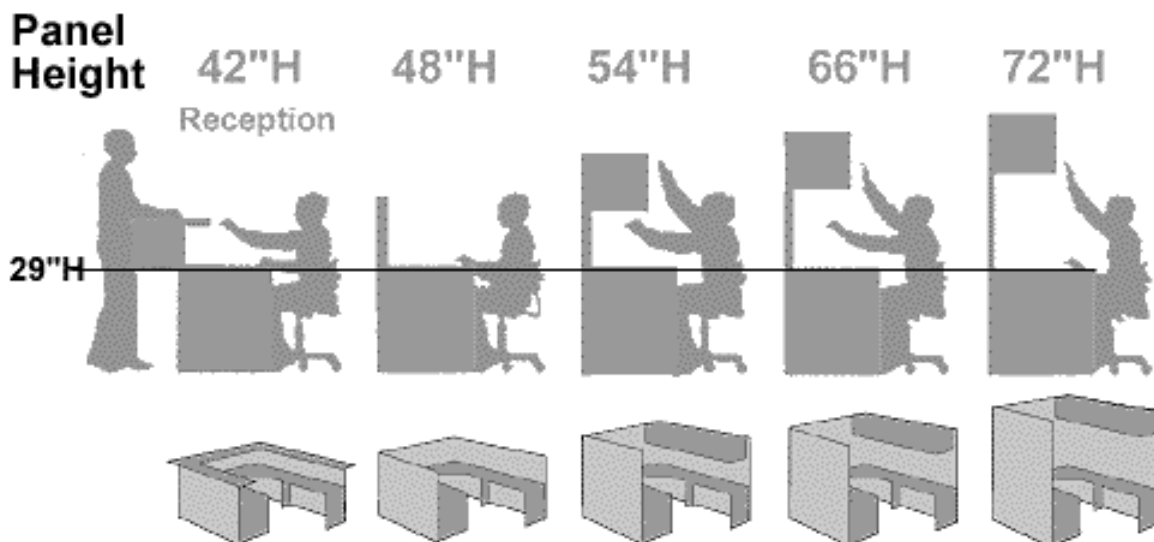

Trends in corporate offices fluctuate throughout the years, from open office environments to more departmentalized or private work areas, to collaborative and mobile spaces, etc...

Office panel systems can be an attractive, practical way to keep up with your changing needs by:

1. Providing “Private” individual and/or group work areas.
2. Providing additional storage through the many options such as drawer pedestals, mobile storage, panel mounted cabinets, etc...
3. Directing the flow of traffic, allowing for minimal disruptions to staff.
4. Reducing glare from ceiling lighting or sunlight.
5. Ease of Reconfigure and Add On capabilities to meet your company’s changing needs!

Panel systems come in a variety of widths & heights to choose from to create the type of office culture, or environment that works best for you. Actual heights may vary from manufacturer to manufacturer, but all have options to create your ideal space!

Additionally, today there are many finishes to choose from to customize your space to your own style and function from choices in fabric, glass, laminate, metal finishes, tool rails and whiteboards, and more!
